An Earnest Appeal

DEAR SIR:

It is with much pleasure that I am able to offer so choice a lot of coins and I hope that I may be favored with your bids for anything which may be of interest to you.

Nearly two thsusand copies of this catalogue have been distributed, (the largest amount of sale catalogues distributed at one time by any dealer) but I am aware that many reach collectors who are no longer interested in the science. And it is to that number that I wish to appeal to most.

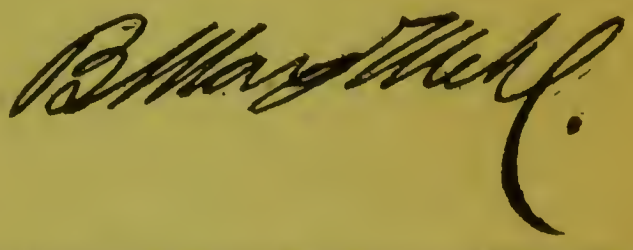
If you are no longer interested in Numismatics or if you are not an auction buyer, would you be so kind as to advise me? The cost to you is merely a postal; the favor it will afford me is great.

If there is nothing in this catalogue of interest to you, or if you are not an auction buyer, kindly let me hear from you. Send me a list of your wants and I assure you that you will find my prices and methods to compare most favorably with those of any other market. I may be "way down in Texas," but you would really be surprised at the nice and prompt attention your favors will receive. If you contemplate to sell your collection or part of same, it will be to your interest to communicate with me. Whether buyer or seller I shall be pleased to hear from you. My entire time is devoted to the coin business and I can serve you most satisfactorily.

In conclusion, I wish to ask you kindly to carefully look over the items offered in this catalogue and if there is one or a hundred items that appeal to you, do not hesitate to favor me with your bids for same. No matter how small or how large your order may be, it will have my prompt and very best attention.

Thanking you, and hoping to hear from you soon and favorably, and assuring you in advance of my appreciation and efforts to merit same, I am,

Yours very truly,



MEMBER: American Numismatic Association, American Numismatic and Archaeological Society of New York, British Numismatic Society of London.

CORRESPONDING MEMBER: Chicago Numismatic Society, Ohio State Numismatic Society.

CATALOGUE

CAROLINA

LOT

1 1694—Halfpenny. Elephant standing facing left. Reverse; in six lines: GOD: | PRESERVE: | CAROLINA: AND | THE LORDS: | PROPRIETORS. | 1694. The last "O" is over "E." The last "E" in the word PRESERVE and "D" in AND are weak, otherwise it is very good. Excessively rare. One of the very rarest Colonial coins. One in the Ulex Sale, in 1902, brought $130.00, and is worth more today.

CONNETICUT

2 1737—Threepence. Deer standing to left. In circle: THE . VALUE . OF . THREE . PENCE; Reverse, three crowned hammers. In circle: CONNECTICVT. 1737. Base silver. Extremely rare. Very good. Fine for the coin.

This coin was found in Lancaster, N. H in 1902, much corroded, but has since been cleaned. While the authorities on this coin make no mention of it being struck of anything but copper, yet it is very reasonable that a coin of the value of six cents should be made in a more precious metal than a coin of the same size and valued at one penny, which was the value of all the copper coins of that period—except the Grandy Three Pence, and had any one wanted to counterfeit it they would have had to either found the original dies or a set made. In either case it would have been rank idocy to have made them in anything but copper, if copper was REALLY the original metal, had they been made with the intent to defraud. The copper specimens of this coin are well worth up in the "three figure" mark, and are seldom offered. None of the great collections recently sold contained a specimen of this coin. Even if a re-strike it is extremely rare and should bring a correspondingly fair price. It is probably unique.

3 1787—Cent. Bust. Rev. Female seated. Very fair, near good.

4 Kentucky. Without date. Halfpenny. E PLURIBUS UNUM. Pyramid of stars. Plain edge. Very good, scarce.

5 New Jersey. 1787 Cent. Bust of a horse above a plow. Rev. Shield. E PLURIBUS UNUM. Good.

6 New York. 1794. Talbot Allum & Lee Cent. Ship. Rev. LIBERTY & COMMERCE. Very good, scarce.

6a Pitt Token, 1766. Bust to left. Below NO STAMPS. Around THE RESTORER OF COMMERCE 1766. Reverse, Ship sailing to right. In field, AMERICA. Around, THANKS TO THE FRIENDS OF LIBERTY AND TRADE. Very good and very rare. Worth from $3.00 to $5.00.

6b 1802—U. S. Cent. N. YORK. counterstamped on a U. S. Cent. Rev. Eagle and stack of grain counterstamped. Fair; rare.

7 Massachusetts. 1788 Cent. Eagle. Rev. An Indian standing. Around, COMMON WEALTH. Very good.

8 Another, same as the one preceding; fair.

9 1787—Fugio or Franklin Cent. "MIND YOUR BUSINESS." STATES UNITED. Fine; scarce.

10 1776—Dollar. CONTINENTAL CURRENCY. 1776. Sundial within double circle, below it MIND YOUR BUSINESS. Between inner and outer circle FUGIO and E. G. FECIT (signature of engraver). Reverse, 13 links interlinked, each bearing the name of a state, encircling a double circle; between inner and outer circle AMERICAN CONGRESS, within the inner circle, WE ARE ONE. Engrailed edge. Pewter, about fine. Very rare. The rarest type of this coin, the word CURRENCY being spelled with two Rs and having the names of the engraver E. G. Fecit. Specimens of this variety readily bring from $10.00 to $15.00.

UNITED STATES COINS

A Collection of Fractional Currency, representing every denomination, consisting of 3c, 5c, 10c, 15c, 25c and 50c Notes. The entire set for only

$3.50

Collection No. 2

This collection consists of eighteen (18) Notes, all different, representing each and every issue and denomination of the Fractional Currency from 3c to 50c. Price of this splendid collection only $10.00

This collection would cost near $15.00 if Notes were bought separately.

I also possess a large stock of the rare varieties of the Fractioal Currency. Prices on application.

Selections cheerfully sent on approval to responsible parties..
